

VASH

Human

Female

Biography

The woman known as Vash is a talented archaeologist who has made many important discoveries over the past several decades. She's also an unapologetic liar, a notorious smuggler, and an interstellar criminal. She entered the life of Captain Jean-Luc Picard when the two met by chance on Risa. They flirted at first but Captain Picard quickly found out that she was really after an artifact called the Tox Uthat.

Since then Vash has been showing up frequently and causing trouble for the crew of the Enterprise-D, partnering with the powerful entity Q, and generally walking a fine line between adventurer and thief.
