

DR. KATHERINE PULASKI

(Major NPC)

Doctor Katherine Pulaski served aboard the U.S.S. Repulse before her one-year stint aboard the Enterprise as Chief Medical Officer. A renowned surgeon, she is an expert in heart transplants and ocular implants. Her expertise also extends to viral propagation and humanoid memory engrams. She distrusts transporters and turbolifts, and does not discount traditional remedies and procedures when treating patients. Her stubbornness is legendary, and she always advocates for the human side of any situation.

Quick Study (Talent, page 138)

You Can Get Out Of My Hair: Once during an Extended Task where she is the primary lead, Pulaski may refuse assistance. If she performs the Task without Assistance from any person or any ship system, she gains the benefit Triumphant (page 91) for that Task.

A Time Honored Way To Practice Medicine: When Doctor Pulaski attempts or assists in a Medicine Task that where old-fashioned techniques may be helpful (e.g., splints, chicken soup), reduce the number of Complications rolled on the Task by 1, to a minimum of zero.
