

GUINAN

Madame Guinan is an El-Aurian who sometimes travels to other planets, such as the time she pretended to be a human on Earth in the 19th century. Her guise at that time was that of a wealthy socialite with an interest in literature, and had befriended Mark Twain.

Talents

Constantly Watching: When you attempt a Task to detect danger or hidden enemies, reduce the Difficulty by 1.

Untapped Potential: Whenever you succeed at a Task for which you bought one or more additional dice with either Momentum or Threat, you may roll 1▲. You receive bonus Momentum equal to the roll of the ▲, and add one point of Threat if an Effect is rolled.

Cautious (Command): Whenever you attempt a Task with Command, and you buy one or more d20s by spending Momentum, you may re-roll a single d20.

Listener: You know how to subtly use your empathic skills to discern not only what is being said but also what is being unsaid. This allows you to tell someone exactly what they need to hear. When you attempt a Task to advise or convince someone into taking or refraining from a specific course of action, you may add a bonus d20.
