

WIK LUN

Breen

Female

Breen Confederacy

Biography

The Breen Confederacy regularly practices slavery, something that prevents it from having normal relations with most major powers in the Alpha Quadrant. It is an important part of both the Confederacy economy and Breen culture since it is a means of showing that Breen are superior to other species.

Wik Lun is one of those Breen who is most focused on the cultural aspect of maintaining enslaved populations. Though she only has an effective rank of ak'ched (something equivalent to a lieutenant junior grade in Starfleet) she has developed a reputation for breaking the spirit of rebellious slave populations and for raising the efficiency of mining colonies staffed by enslaved aliens. She is just as cold and impersonal as other Breen but the amount of attention she pays to patrols and monitoring her charges shows that her skill is more than just professional duty.

Those few slaves who have escaped her control and been debriefed by Starfleet Intelligence have said that every prisoner in a colony under Wik Lun's authority knows what her biosuit looks like and dreads her approach. She is known for casual and emotionless violence, creating a fear of punishment or standing out. Partly these stories are hard to come by since few escape colonies overseen by Wik Lun but also because those that do are often killed conveniently. There's no evidence that Wik Lun is behind the killings of these escapees, but the pattern is too clear to ignore.

Wik Lun as Anti-Dominion Rebel

The relationship between the Breen and the Dominion creates some interesting options for Wik Lun. She is a ruthless slave overseer but she maintains that control because she believes that other species are inferior to the Breen. When the Confederacy joins that Dominion, putting them underneath the Vorta who are themselves underneath the Founders, this superiority seems to be in jeopardy.

This is an opportunity for Wik Lun to switch sides, narratively. Like Damar, Wik Lun is certainly an antagonistic character but in the face of Dominion hegemony she might be willing to ally with Starfleet. Lun is not going to ever become a sympathetic character but if Starfleet Command is looking for inroads into the Breen Confederacy to pull them away from Dominion control, they could do worse than an effective and deadly rebel.
