

HALIIAN

THE NEXT GENERATION ERA ONLY

Haliian are from Halii, a member world of the Federation. They are a telepathic species with limited person-to-person empathy, which they can access through a crystal called a canar. They may establish an empathic bond with their lovers. Haliian distinguished from Humans in that they have slight bulges and indentations above their eyebrows, along with a crease between the brows.

EXAMPLE VALUE: Celebrate Our Holidays No Matter Where We Are.

- ATTRIBUTES: +1 Insight, +1 Presence, +1 Reason
- TRAIT: Haliian. Haliian have limited telepathic abilities enhanced by canar crystals. They may have recurring symbolic dreams.
- TALENTS: The character receives access to the following talents:

HALIIAN EMPATHY

REQUIREMENT: Haliian.

You have the Talent Empath (see page 105 of the Core Rulebook), but only at Close range. You also have a crystal prism called a canar, usable by Haliian to focus and amplify their telepathic abilities. When holding a canar, you may spend one Momentum to remove the range limitation. If another person is touching the canar as you, and they are a romantic interest, you may use the Talent Telepath (also page 105) instead. This Talent may be used only on the other person touching the canar.

SYMBOLIC DREAMS

REQUIREMENT: Haliian, or Gamemaster's permission.

As an aspect of your Haliian telepathy, your dreams are meaningful and symbolic, and you have learned how to interpret them to better understand yourself and your current situation. If you are able to go to sleep at the end of a Scene, or was rendered unconscious at the end of a Scene, in the next Scene where you wake up, you may add a bonus d20 to your dice pool for all Tasks that involve Insight.
