

SAURIAN

THE ORIGINAL SERIES OR THE NEXT GENERATION ERAS ONLY

The Saurians are a humanoid reptilian species from the planet Sauria, best known for Saurian brandy, one of the most popular and infamous alcoholic drinks in Federation space. While they were capable of space travel for decades prior to their neighbouring systems, such as Earth, the Saurians established no colonies beyond their home system. Hailing from a system with planets rich in natural resources (including dilithium) other species were eager to trade with Sauria, so Saurians seldom had to venture far out into space, instead letting others come to them. Contact between Saurians and Humans took place in the mid-22nd Century, shortly before the original NX-1 Enterprise was decommissioned. As first contact occurred with an Earth cargo ship, Starfleet had to dispatch a second starship to initiate more formal relations. Since that date, the Saurians have joined the Federation and have numerous members serving in Starfleet. In one possible timeline, a Saurian is the Federation President in the first decades of the 25th Century.

■ ATTRIBUTES: +1 Fitness, +1 Presence, +1 Reason

■ TRAIT: Saurian. A humanoid reptilian species adapted to rain forests and wetlands, Saurians were semi-aquatic and comfortable moving underwater. They could breathe a wide variety of gasses and possess an immunity to many forms of toxins. As the gravity of Sauria was a 20% higher than Earth's, they were stronger than humans. Saurians possess a second set of eyelids that confers infrared vision, but their nocturnal lifestyle means they have a weakness to bright light, and often have to wear goggles in brightly illuminated areas.
