Overview: While used exclusively by the Xindi-Reptilians, multiple Xindi subspecies were involved in the creation of the Sistruus warship.

Capabilities: Despite being comparable in size to Earth's NX-class, these vessels could be crewed by as few as 22 Xindi-Reptilians. The design featured armaments appropriate to the bellicose Reptilians, and was equipped with spatial torpedoes and highly charged particle cannons designed for maximum effect on the hulls of enemy ships.
